

Dear FCC,

I avidly listen to KYLV (KLOVE) contemporary Christian radio station in my area. It brings me great pleasure, lifts me up and improves my spiritual and mental well being.

My whole family listens to this station, including my four-year old granddaughter. She won't listen to any other station and knows the difference when I change stations.

Please keep this great Christian music station available to the public at its highest broadcasting power possible.

Thanks you,

J. L. Boyd
